FINE OPPORTUNITY

For the People of This Vicinity to Hear Maysville's Only Grand Opera Singer Will Be Given at the Washington Opera House Thursday Night.

Miss Florence Wadsworth Wallace, Maysville's only grand opera singer, will give a recital before a Maysville and Mason county audience in this city on Thursday night of this week. A large crowd is expected to be present to hear this gifted woman.

Miss Wallace was born in the city of Maysville and spent the larger part of her youth here. Feeling that she could make a success on the stage and being the possessor of a splendid voice, she began to take lessons in voice. In 1908 she studied abroad under some of the leading teachers of the old world and thoroughly mastered the art. When she returned to this country she began to sing with one of the leading opera companies of the country and it was not long before she began singing leading roles. Her first great success was Madame Butterfly. Besides she has sung in the following operas: Faust, Carmen, Il Trovatore, Cavalleria Rusticana and Lucia. For the past few seasons she has been connected with the Philadelphia Grand Opera Company.

Miss Wallace has a rich soprano voice and never fails to delight her hearers. Her program as announced in yesterday's Ledger exclusively, will not fail to please the most exacting critic and certainly contains selections that will appeal to all.

Miss Wallace will arrive in this city this afternoon and will remain until Friday morning. She will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Fee on Sutton street.

Maysville lovers of music should not let this opportunity pass to hear this city's only grand opera singer. The entertainment will begin promptly at 8 o'clock on Thursday night. Miss Wallace will be accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Barbour, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Barbour of this city. A large crowd will undoubtedly be present to hear Miss Wallace.

JOHN D. ARCHBOLD, NOTED FINANCIER, DIES AT 68

Tarrytown, N. Y., December 5—John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, died at his home here this morning.

Mr. Archbold was a native of Ohio and was sixty-eight years old. In early life he was an oil refiner and buyer in Western Pennsylvania, and in 1875 he became associated with the Rockefeller interests. A competitor that continued until his death. He became president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey shortly after the dissolution of the "trust" was ordered by the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Archbold's death followed an illness of less than two weeks. He was operated upon for appendicitis November 23 and for a time seemed to rally. Later he suffered a relapse.

Mr. Archbold was almost as closely identified with the history of the Standard Oil as John D. Rockefeller himself. Of the first nine trustees of the "trust" formed in 1882, he alone remained in his capacity until its dissolution in 1911 at the order of the United States Supreme Court, and it was he who was named to engineer the dissolution, after which he became president and director of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. He was the most active and aggressive fighter in the oil combine, and invariably represented the Standard Oil on the witness stand in the numerous hearings in connection with the government's suit to dissolve it.

WAS EXCELLENT MUSIC

Not the least of the memorable features attending the Elks' Memorial service held in Maysville last Sunday was the fine artistic work of the group of young musicians sent from the College of Music of Cincinnati. The pure, fresh voices of the singers who included the Misses Edna Broekhoff, soprano, Elizabeth Langebrake, contralto, Mr. Russell Dunham, tenor and George Segers, baritone, were wonderfully effective during the impressive services. The pianist and accompanist, Miss Louise W. Church, proved herself a young artist of great gifts and supervised the presentation of the program in a serene, able manner, besides playing herself. The institution which these musicians represent makes a specialty of the development of talented young American students for dignified, professional work.

Miss Clarke Farrow has accepted a position as bookkeeper with the Day & Night Garage on East Second street.

Mr. Eneas Myall of the firm of Myall & Calvert, is a business visitor in Cincinnati today.

MANY ATTEND MOVIES FREE

Hundreds Already See the Shows Gratis as Guests of the Ledger.

Although the Ledger has been publishing its free movie coupons for only a few days, the local picture theaters have already reported lots of free admissions to persons who have clipped the Ledger coupons.

The movie men are going to have a big rush of free admissions for the free movie coupons are going like wild fire. The number of people who are clipping and saving the coupons cannot be estimated, but doubtless it runs well into the hundreds. Hardly a reader of the Ledger can be found, it seems, who is not taking advantage of this wonderful offer.

Many persons who never tried anything in the nature of trading stamps or savings propositions of any description are working for all they are worth. They are just plain money, nothing else, and when a person neglects to clip them he is simply throwing that much money away.

Everyone seems to understand just how it is done. At first there were many calls at the Ledger's office to ask about the coupons and how to exchange them for MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS but these calls are growing less frequent every day. However, the Ledger is always glad to answer any question that may come in and explain any details that may not be clear.

The plan is so simple that even the children can understand it. In fact, there is a host of school children among the army of coupon clippers.

Here is the whole thing in a nutshell:

First—Clip the Mutual Movie Coupon from the Ledger. One appears in each issue.

Second—When you have enough to make it worth while, take them to any of the progressive merchants who are giving MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS or bring them to the Ledger's office and exchange them for MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS.

Third—When you have exchanged the coupons you will be given some cards of special design. On each of these cards paste 25 Mutual Movie Stamps.

Fourth—You are now in a perfect state of preparedness. Go forthwith or at your leisure to the movies. Each 25 stamp card will be worth five cents for the price of admission.

If you don't like the movies just step into the STATE NATIONAL BANK of Maysville, and get the value of your stamp cards by starting a savings account. Provided only that you must present a dollar's worth at a time as a matter of convenience to the bank.

Now, besides the Mutual Movie Stamps you can collect by saving Ledger Movie Coupons, you can also get lots of stamps from the merchants who appreciate your patronage. These stamps are all interchangeable so you can add them all together and soon have a good big collection.

It is no wonder, is it, that the Ledger's Movie Coupons are taking the city by storm. It is the greatest free offer ever presented to the people of Maysville.

Watch the columns of the Ledger and read what the big Movie Stars say about the Public Ledger's FREE offer and MUTUAL MOVIE STAMPS.

THE PUBLIC LEDGER DAILY MUTUAL MOVIE STAMP COUPON

One of these coupons good for one Mutual Movie Stamp when presented at the Ledger office or at any merchants who give and redeem Mutual Movie Stamps.
